

Jenny Williams
E-mail: jenny@glasgowfilm.com

Qualifications:

Matrix Programme - Ongoing

Common Purpose

University of Strathclyde - Ongoing

LLB Law Degree (Part time)

Lochaber High School, Fort William 1990 - 1996

7 Highers, 8 Standard Grades

Work History:

2002 - Present

Head of Production, Glasgow Film Office. Encourage mobile productions to use Glasgow as a production base. Provide a liaison service to film-makers using the Film Charter for the City of Glasgow. Work with local production companies, crew and facility companies to build and maintain a strong infrastructure in Glasgow.

2001

Freelance production co-ordinator working on "Rockface" (BBC Scotland) and "American Cousins" (Bard Entertainments)

2000

Fundraising and Project management for the 1st International Sand Sculpture Festival in the UK in Glasgow - 16 International Artists came to Glasgow for 10 days to participate in the festival.

Project Co-ordination for Glasgow's Hogmanay - all aspects of the event which include; Marketing, Programming, Sponsorship, Health and safety issues, Ticketing and Liasion with various affected groups

1999

Producers Assistant to Sally Hibbin at Parallax Pictures – involved in script development, pre-production and post production on Parallax Pictures film and television projects.

1996 – 1999

Various short term contracts – film and television production, theatre production management and event management.

Member of British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) and Women in Film and Television (WFTV)